

Summary of Key Necessary Elements in Agency Policies Implementing Section 1101 of Public Law 110-417, as Amended, for Calendar Year 2014

- Section 1101 of Public Law 113-66, December 26, 2013, extends to calendar year 2014 the authority of section 1101 of Public Law 110-417, October 14, 2008, as amended by section 1106 of Public Law 111-84, October 28, 2009; section 1103 of Public Law 111-383, January 7, 2011; section 1104 of Public Law 112-81, December 31, 2011; and section 1101 of Public Law 112-239, January 2, 2013. (Hereafter, all references to “section 1101” in this attachment refer to section 1101 of Public Law 110-417, as amended.) Historical background regarding the application of this waiver authority can be found in CPM 2012-02, March 21, 2012; CPM 2012-05, July 17, 2012; CPM 2013-04, March 21, 2013; and CPM 2013-11, June 17, 2013. Please note that the scheduled Vice President’s salary rate referenced in CPM 2013-04 did not take effect. See Executive Order 13641, April 5, 2013, and CPM 2013-05, April 5, 2013.)
- Section 1101(a) authorizes the waiver of the normal biweekly or annual premium pay cap under 5 U.S.C. 5547 and establishes a higher annual cap linked to the Vice President’s salary rate established under 3 U.S.C. 104, as explained below.
- The premium pay cap waiver authority under section 1101(a) may be applied in calendar year 2014 to a civilian employee who meets all of the following conditions for coverage eligibility:
 1. The employee is covered by 5 U.S.C. 5547 (dealing with limitations on premium pay) or a limitation on premium pay similar to one set forth in 5 U.S.C. 5547 (as determined by the head of the Executive agency in which such employees are employed).
 2. The employee is assigned to work in an overseas location that (1) is in the area of responsibility of the Commander of the U.S. Central Command (CENTCOM) or (2) was formerly in the CENTCOM area of responsibility but has been moved to the area of responsibility of the Commander of the United States Africa Command (AFRICOM) and remains in that location for at least 42 consecutive calendar days (unless an authorized agency official grants a waiver of the 42-day requirement in very limited and extraordinary circumstances – e.g., where an employee’s 42 consecutive days is interrupted by an unplanned short trip outside the area required by the agency in an emergency situation). (If the employee meets the 42-day requirement, the section 1101 limitation may be applied to days before that requirement was satisfied, as long as the employee was performing work in a covered and approved category on those days. Although section 1101 applies only to payments payable in calendar year 2014, the 42-day period may overlap a calendar year—i.e., begins in 2013 and ends in 2014, or begins in 2014 and ends in 2015.)
 3. At the location described in paragraph 2 above, the employee performs work in direct support of, or directly related to, (1) a military operation (including a contingency operation, as defined in 10 U.S.C. 101(a)(13)) or (2) an operation in response to a national emergency declared by the President. (“Military operation” is a Department of Defense (DOD) term of art, defined in the DOD Dictionary of Military and Associated Terms.) Prior to authorizing any premium pay cap waiver under section 1101 on the basis of a military operation, an agency must confirm any DOD operation in countries in which such a waiver is being considered meets the DOD definition. (Note: The Department of State and DOD have made a blanket determination that all their employees serving in Afghanistan are performing work in direct support of, or directly related to, a military operation. In other locations, they will make determinations regarding whether the work performed by a given group of their employees is qualifying based on the particular situation in that location. In some situations, determinations may need to be made on a case-by-case basis after taking into account the individual employee’s duties. Other agencies will need to make their own determinations regarding whether the work performed by their employees is qualifying at a given location.)

4. The employee is in a category of employees for whom coverage under section 1101 has been approved by an authorized agency official. (Note: Section 1101 establishes a discretionary authority that agencies may exercise, not an entitlement.)
- Employees who are granted a waiver under section 1101(a) in calendar year 2014 will be covered by a higher annual premium pay cap in lieu of the normal biweekly and annual premium pay caps under 5 U.S.C. 5547. The employee will be entitled to premium payments identified in 5 U.S.C. 5547(a), or similar limitation, to the extent it does not cause the employee’s combined payable amount of basic pay and premium pay for calendar year 2014 to exceed the annual rate of salary established for the Vice President under 3 U.S.C. 104, which is set at $233,000 for 2014. (See Executive Order 13655, December 23, 2013, and CPM 2013-18, December 23, 2013.) (Note: Under section 5547(b), the normally applicable annual limitation is based on certain annual pay rates in effect at the end of the calendar year. Accordingly, the 2014 limitation is based on the Vice President’s rate under 3 U.S.C. 104 in effect on December 31, 2014. While a statutory pay freeze applies in 2014 to pay rates actually received by the Vice President and certain senior political appointees, that freeze does not affect the officially established 2014 pay rates for the Vice President or the Executive Schedule, as documented in Executive Order 13655. See CPM 2014-03.)
 - The higher annual limitation on premium pay established under section 1101(a) applies during calendar year 2014 to an employee’s annual aggregate basic pay plus premium pay even after the employee has stopped performing work covered by section 1101. After an employee stops performing covered work, the employee’s earnings will again be subject to the biweekly premium pay limitation under 5 U.S.C. 5547, or similar limitation, and the employee could receive payments up to the biweekly premium pay limitation each pay period until the section 1101(a) annual limitation is reached. (Note: If such an employee’s aggregate projected basic pay plus premium pay payable for 2014 is less than the annual limit established under 5 U.S.C. 5547, an agency may invoke that annual limit, if appropriate, and pay premium pay in excess of the biweekly limit. Once the section 5547 annual limit is reached, the employee would be again subject to the section 5547 biweekly limit and simultaneously subject to the section 1101(a) annual limit. If the employee's projected basic pay plus premium pay payable for 2014 already exceeds the section 5547 annual limit, the waiver of the biweekly limit and invoking of the section 5547 annual limit would not provide additional premium pay in any biweekly pay period.)

- Under section 1101(b), the aggregate limitation on pay under 5 U.S.C. 5307 will not apply in calendar year 2014 to any employee who is granted a premium pay cap waiver under section 1101(a) during any part of that calendar year. When the aggregate limitation on pay under 5 U.S.C. 5307 is applied, payments (other than basic pay) in excess of the aggregate limitation must be deferred and are generally paid as a lump-sum payment at the beginning of the following calendar year. However, if section 1101(b) applies to an employee in calendar year 2014, the employee is entitled to receive applicable payments immediately without deferral.
- Under section 1101(c), any additional premium pay that results from application of the higher premium pay cap under section 1101(a), may not be considered basic pay for retirement or any other purpose, nor may it be used in computing a lump-sum payment for accumulated and accrued annual leave under 5 U.S.C. 5551. Under 5 U.S.C. 5547 and 5 CFR 550.107, various types of premium pay creditable for retirement and other purposes are always subject to a biweekly cap, even in emergencies that would normally trigger the annual premium pay limit. Thus, in applying section 1101(a), an agency should consider any premium pay of a type that is normally basic pay for retirement or other purposes as being paid before any other premium payment and apply the biweekly cap to determine the amount of basic pay creditable for retirement and other purposes. In other words, section 1101(a) would allow these types of premium payments to exceed the normally applicable biweekly limit, but any excess beyond the biweekly limit would be attributable to section 1101(a) and therefore would not be treated as basic pay for retirement or other purposes. Similarly, for premium payments that are normally used in computing an annual leave lump-sum payment, only the portion below the biweekly limit may be used in the computation.
- Iraq Mission. Section 1101 may be applied to eligible employees performing work in direct support of, or directly related to, an operation in response to the current national emergency declared by the President in Iraq, as explained below. If the national emergency is extended or other conditions change, we will issue additional guidance as appropriate.
 1. Since the U.S. no longer has a military operation in Iraq, the higher premium pay cap cannot be applied to employees working in Iraq on that basis. However, on May 17, 2013, President Obama issued a notice to continue for 1 year (through May 22, 2014) the declared national emergency with respect to the stabilization of Iraq. (See the President's notice at <http://www.whitehouse.gov/the-press-office/2013/05/17/notice-continuation-national-emergency-respect-stabilization-iraq>.) Based on this notice, agencies may continue to apply the section 1101(a) waiver authority for eligible employees in Iraq based on service performed through May 17, 2014, which is the last day of the last full pay period ending before May 22, 2014. To be eligible in Iraq, employees must be performing work in direct support of, or directly related to, an operation in response to the current national emergency declared by the President

- described in the Presidential notice of May 17, 2014. (Note: Absent appropriate Presidential or Congressional action, agencies may not apply the premium pay cap waiver to employees based on work performed in Iraq after May 17, 2014. If the national emergency is extended or other conditions change, we will revise this guidance as appropriate.)
2. The requirements listed above continue for application of the premium pay cap waiver to employees in Iraq. This includes the guidance in the fourth bullet above that the higher annual premium pay limit will continue to limit premium payments payable to an employee after May 17, 2014, until the end of calendar year 2014 if that employee was working in Iraq and under an approved waiver during the period from January 1, 2014, through May 17, 2014. Thus, while the regular biweekly limit on premium pay under 5 U.S.C. 5547 applies to an employee for work performed in Iraq after May 17, 2014, any premium payments under that biweekly limit would be simultaneously subject to the section 1101(a) annual limit—meaning that premium payments would cease when the section 1101(a) annual limit is reached. (Note: As explained in the note in the fourth bullet, an agency may waive the biweekly limit and invoke the annual limit under 5 U.S.C. 5547 (higher of EX-V or applicable GS-15/10 rate), if the employee’s aggregate projected basic pay plus premium pay payable for 2014 is less than that annual limit. Once the section 5547 annual limit is reached, the employee would be again subject to the section 5547 biweekly limit and simultaneously subject to the section 1101(a) annual limit.)
 3. Service in Iraq after May 17, 2014, will count towards the 42 consecutive days requirement, if the 42-day period began on or before May 17, 2014. When an employee in Iraq satisfies the 42-day requirement after May 17, 2014, the waiver will apply retroactively but will apply only to payments payable for covered pay periods ending on or before May 17, 2014, consistent with paragraph 5 below.
 4. The waiver of the aggregate pay limitation in section 5307 applies to an employee after May 17, 2014 (i.e., for the whole calendar year 2014), if that employee was working in Iraq and covered by an approved waiver during any part of the period from January 1, 2014, through May 17, 2014.
 5. Agencies may not apply the premium pay cap waiver to employees based on work performed in Iraq after May 17, 2014, unless specific authority is provided by appropriate Presidential or Congressional action. (Note: The premium pay cap waiver may apply to the pay check for the pay period ending on May 17, 2014.)
 6. The President modified the scope of the national emergency declared in Executive Order 13303, May 22, 2003, and took additional steps in response to this national emergency through the issuances of additional Executive Orders. Please refer to these orders – Executive Order 13315, August 28, 2003, Executive Order 13350, July 29, 2004, Executive Order 13364, November 29, 2004, and Executive Order 13438, July 17, 2007.

SEC. 1101. AUTHORITY TO WAIVE ANNUAL LIMITATION ON PREMIUM PAY AND AGGREGATE LIMITATION ON PAY FOR FEDERAL CIVILIAN EMPLOYEES WORKING OVERSEAS.

(a) WAIVER AUTHORITY.- During the calendar years 2009 through 2014, and notwithstanding section 5547 of title 5, United States Code, the head of an executive agency may waive, the premium pay limitations established in that section up to the annual rate of the salary payable to the Vice President under section 104 of title 3, United States Code, for an employee who performs work while in an overseas location that is in the area of responsibility of the Commander of the United States Central Command, or an overseas location that was formerly in the area of responsibility of the Commander of the United States Central Command but has been moved to the area of responsibility of the Commander of the United States Africa Command, in direct support of or directly related to—

- (1) a military operation, including a contingency operation; or
- (2) an operation in response to a national emergency declared by the President.

(b) APPLICABILITY OF AGGREGATE LIMITATION ON PAY.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 5307 of title 5, United States Code, shall not apply to any employee in any calendar year in which that employee is granted a waiver under subsection (a).

(2) OTHER LIMITATIONS.—In the case of any employees who (disregarding subparagraph (A)) would otherwise be subject to a limitation on premium pay similar to one set forth in section 5547 of title 5, United States Code (as determined by the head of the Executive agency in or under which such employees are employed)—

(A) the agency head may waive that otherwise applicable limitation, to the same extent and in the same manner as would be allowable under subsection (a) if those employees were instead subject to such section 5547; and

(B) if a waiver under subparagraph (A) is granted with respect to such employees, then, neither section 5307 of title 5, United States Code, nor any other similar limitation (as determined by the agency head) shall apply with respect to such employees for purposes of any calendar year for which such waiver is so granted.

(c) ADDITIONAL PAY NOT CONSIDERED BASIC PAY.— To the extent that a waiver under subsection (a) results in payment of additional premium pay of a type that is normally creditable as basic pay for retirement or any other purpose, such additional pay shall not be considered to be basic pay for any purpose, nor shall it be used in computing a lump-sum payment for accumulated and accrued annual leave under section 5551 of title 5, United States Code.

(d) REGULATIONS. — The Director of the Office of Personnel Management may issue regulations to ensure appropriate consistency among heads of executive agencies in the exercise of the authority granted by this section.
