DESCRIPTION

The Wounded Warriors Federal Leave Act of 2015 (Public Law 114-75, November 5, 2015) created a new leave entitlement to be known as “disabled veteran leave.” Disabled veteran leave is available to any covered Federal employee hired on or after November 5, 2016, who is a veteran with a service-connected disability rating of 30 percent or more for purposes of undergoing medical treatment for such disability for which sick leave could regularly be used. Our presenters would like to provide you with an opportunity to learn more about this new leave entitlement.

The presentation will include detailed information on:

- Employee coverage;
- Information on qualifying service-connected disabilities;
- The 12-month benefit period;
- Crediting and forfeiture of hours;

- Usage of leave for medical purposes;
- Retroactive usage;
- Transfer of leave between agencies; and
- Other related questions.
