MEMORANDUM FOR: HUMAN RESOURCES DIRECTORS

FROM: MARK REINHOLD
ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR, EMPLOYEE SERVICES AND CHIEF HUMAN CAPITAL OFFICER

Subject: Cybersecurity Hiring, Pay, and Leave Flexibilities.

As technology becomes increasingly more sophisticated and the threats to our data security intensify, the demand for an experienced and qualified workforce to protect networks and information systems has never been higher. This memorandum provides information on a number of hiring, pay, and leave flexibilities that agencies may use to fill and retain individuals in cybersecurity positions.

Please share this information with hiring managers and your Human Resource staff. Hiring managers should contact their agency human resources office for further information on this memo. Agency headquarters-level human resources offices may contact the OPM Hiring Policy office at employ@opm.gov or (202) 606-0960 for further information on the hiring flexibilities or the OPM Pay and Leave office at pay-leave-policy@opm.gov or (202) 606-2858 for further information on the pay and leave flexibilities.

cc: Chief Human Capital Officers, Deputy Chief Human Capital Officers

Pay and Leave Flexibilities (Currently Available)
• Government-wide Special Rates for entry and developmental level Computer Engineers, Computer Science Specialists, and Information Technology Management Specialists. See the Special Rates main page for more information. 5 U.S.C. 5305 and 5 CFR part 530, subpart C.

• Recruitment Incentive or Relocation Incentive up to 25 percent of basic pay for hard-to-fill positions multiplied by the number of years in the service agreement (up to 4 years). See Incentives Fact Sheet Index for more information. 5 U.S.C. 5753 and 5 CFR part 575, subparts A and B.

• Retention Incentive for highly-qualified employees or employees filling a special agency need that are likely to leave the Federal service, up to 25 percent of basic pay for an individual or 10 percent for a group. See the Retention Incentive fact sheet for more information. 5 U.S.C. 5754 and 5 CFR part 575, subpart C.

• Superior Qualifications and Special Needs Pay-Setting permits agencies to set a new General Schedule (GS) employee’s pay above Step 1 (up to Step 10), because of the employee’s superior qualifications or the agency’s special need of the candidate’s services. See the Superior Qualifications and Special Needs Pay-Setting Authority fact sheet for more information. 5 CFR 531.212.

• Maximum Payable Rate permits agencies to set pay at a higher than normal GS rate (not to exceed Step 10), based on the employee’s pay in another Federal job. See the Maximum Payable Rate Rule fact sheet for more information. 5 CFR 531.221-223.

• Federal Student Loan Repayment Program permits agencies to repay up to $60,000 of a candidate’s or current employee’s Federally-insured student loans as a recruitment or retention incentive. See the Student Loan Repayment fact sheet for more information. 5 U.S.C. 5379 and 5 CFR part 537.

• Creditable Service for Annual Leave Accrual for Non-Federal Work Experience and Experience in the Uniformed Service permits agencies to grant higher leave accruals based on non-Federal and military experience for hard-to-fill positions. See the Creditable Service fact sheet for more information. 5 CFR 630.205.

Pay Flexibilities (Available upon Request and Approval by OPM)

• Special Rates – OPM may establish higher rates of basic pay for a group or category of GS positions in one or more geographic areas to address existing or likely handicaps in recruiting or retaining well-qualified employees. See the Special Rates main page for more information. 5 U.S.C. 5305 and 5 CFR part 530, subpart C.

• Recruitment, Relocation, and Retention Incentives – With OPM approval, the cap on recruitment, relocation, or retention incentives may be increased to 50 percent based on a critical agency need. See Incentives Fact Sheet Index for more information. 5 U.S.C.
5753 and 5 CFR part 575, subparts A and B.

- Critical Position Pay—OPM, in consultation with OMB, may grant authority to set pay at a higher than normal rate for a position that requires an extremely high level of expertise in a scientific, technical, professional, or administrative field that is critical to the successful accomplishment of an important agency mission. See the Critical Position Pay fact sheet for more information. 5 U.S.C. 5377 and 5 CFR part 535.
