MEMORANDUM FOR CHIEF HUMAN CAPITAL OFFICERS

FROM: Linda M. Springer,
Director

SUBJECT: Asian Pacific American Federal Career Advancement Summit

The Fifth Annual Asian Pacific American Federal Career Advancement Summit is a one day training event co-hosted by the Department of Labor and the Office of Personnel Management, at the Washington Hyatt Regency on Capitol Hill on Wednesday May 3, 2006.

The training qualifies as training in compliance with 5 U.S.C. Chapter 41. The training is open to all employees and will cover career advancement topics such as behavioral interviewing, online training, career management, and leadership competencies.

This summit offers training and networking opportunities to those who are looking to become leaders in the Federal government. While registration for the Summit is free of charge, participants must register and some sessions will limit the number of registrants who may enroll.

Federal employees and managers are encouraged to review additional conference and training information when deciding to participate, such as course descriptions, and schedules at apasummit.gov/.
