IRMCO 2010

Presented by GSA, the Interagency Resources Management Conference (IRMCO) brings robust content, renowned thought-leaders, engaged attendees, and sponsors with solutions specific to this topic, to connect and network with each other. GSA established the theme for 2010 as Leading Reform for Mission Performance. Now in its 49th year, IRMCO continues to serve government's senior managers and program managers, human capital, information technology, acquisition and finance executives. For the second consecutive year, the CHCO Council is invited to participate in IRMCO and will play a pivotal role in the discussion of Human Capital and Leading Reform for Mission Performance. Priority accommodations are limited, so please register early!
