

Dear CHCO's and Deputy CHCO's:

OPM has worked with GSA to present an offsite conference that brings CHCO's together with CAOs, CFOs, CIOs, Inspectors General and other senior executives in management functions for three and a half days in Cambridge, MD, an hour and a half from Washington, DC. The Interagency Resources Management Conference (IRMCO) runs from Sunday evening, April 11, to Wednesday noon, April 14, at the Hyatt Regency Chesapeake Bay. The IRMCO conference web site is www.irmco.gov.

Some of the highlights for IRMCO 2010 are:

- Opening night dinner featuring GSA's new administrator Martha Johnson and White House senior advisor Valerie Jarrett.
- Monday morning HR session on breaking down barriers to hiring reform.
- SES session with senior leadership to dive into critical White House goals.
- Director John Berry delivering a message to the Federal workforce on Tuesday.
- Session on achieving mission performance with workforce flexibilities on Tuesday.
- A session led by leaders who carry one or more areas of responsibility in addition to human capital on leading change across domains.
- Breakfast, lunch and dinner each day with fellow CHCO's, OPM officials and other peers from 72 different government agencies.
- Closed CHCO Council meeting taking place on Wednesday morning.

For each agency, the Council will sponsor the conference fee for the CHCO and/or Deputy.
