

UNITED STATES OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT
Washington, DC 20415

The Director

October 30, 2007

MEMORANDUM FOR CHIEF HUMAN CAPITAL OFFICERS

FROM: LINDA M. SPRINGER
Director

SUBJECT: New Administrative Law Judge Register

The U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is pleased to announce that, effective today, a new register has been established for Federal agency use in filling vacant Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) positions. This new register is based on the results of the examination process applicants were required to complete under the ALJ Vacancy Announcement 2007ALJ-134575, issued on May 4, 2007.

The new examination and the resulting register are in accordance with OPM's issuance of revised regulations for the ALJ program (5 CFR 337.101 and part 930, subpart B), which took effect on April 19, 2007. Further, as previously announced, the new register terminates and replaces the register established under the previous ALJ examination (Announcement Number 318).

cc: Agency Human Resources Directors